Avoid Morning Madness—Make a Sure Spot!!!

Have you ever heard yourself say “I did my homework, but I forgot to bring it” or “I know had my gym clothes ready to go, but I forgot to put them in my bag . . .” Teachers have heard it all!!! Make sure you never forget your homework again by creating a “SURE SPOT” in your house—a place where you will put your bookbag each night once you are sure that you have everything you need to bring to school inside. Always keep your bookbag in the same spot. Once you’ve finished your homework, check your schedule for anything else that you might need for the following day, like your band instrument, or your gym clothes. Gather everything (homework included) and place it all into your bookbag and put the bag in your “SURE SPOT.” Now there is no more morning madness, where you run around like crazy trying to get everything together! Your teacher will love the idea and your parents will thank you!!!

My Sure Spot is: _____
